

House Resolution No. 3659

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably help today's students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Jodi Stucker has attained considerable distinction as an instructor in the Business Department of State Fair Community College; and

Whereas, Jodi Stucker recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she received the 2005 Instructor of the Year award at the college's annual Honors Convocation in the Fred E. Davis Multipurpose Center; and

Whereas, an educator for fourteen years, Jodi Stucker has served at State Fair Community College for seven years; and

Whereas, Jodi Stucker earned an Associate of Science degree in business management in 1987 from Connors State College in Warner, Oklahoma, and a Bachelor of Science degree in education in 1990 and a Master's degree in curriculum and instruction with an emphasis in technology in 1997 from Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg, Missouri; and

Whereas, Jodi Stucker has brought to her endeavors at State Fair Community College a wealth of experience which she garnered from previous employment in high school and adult education in the Morgan County R-I School District in Stover and at the junior high and high school level in the La Monte R-IV School District; and

Whereas, Jodi Stucker was nominated for Instructor of the Year honors by students Lori Huffman and Megan Black with recommendations from her dean and department head and with input from all of her students:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Jodi Stucker as the 2005 Instructor of the Year at State Fair Community College and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jodi Stucker.
